

this bill, indefinitely postpone 877. I do understand that those who are in the process should be allowed to complete. But if they are allowed to complete, why in the world do we want to take away the rights of other people who are going to be in the same position to file for this last, last statute in law that they can claim? We're talking about the end of the case law, the common law. And we will bar others forever if 877 is passed. But I do support this amendment because I think it is only right that those who have started should be allowed to finish. And I would hope that, by the time 877 comes up again, you will have had enough information that it will not be passed. I support the amendment.
